Open Arms Child Development Center & Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church team up with Starbucks to Host Monthly Children's Reading Program

ASHBURN, Virginia - May 7 - Open Arms Child Development Center, a ministry of Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church, has teamed with the Broadlands Starbucks to host a monthly children's reading program. The next event will be on Saturday, May 12th, from 1pm – 2pm, at Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church located at 43115 Waxpool Road in Ashburn, Virginia. Free drinks and cookies will be provided by Starbucks. The program will involve reading stories to the children as well as a Mother's Day craft the children can make and take home.

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church, along with the Open Arms Christian Child Development Center, has served families in the Ashburn area for over 10 years. Open Arms is open to children from 6 weeks to 12 years old and offers after school care for children in kindergarten through sixth grade. They are located at the intersection of Waxpool Road and Claiborne Parkway (Exit 5 of the Greenway and 1 mile south) and are currently expanding their facility to provide room for additional community activities.

Starbucks is dedicated to contributing positively to the communities in which it does business. Each store strives to be a good neighbor and active contributor in their community. The Starbucks Foundation, established in 1997, has maintained a focus on improving the lives of youth through support of literacy programs. The Broadlands Starbucks is located at 43150 Broadlands Center Plaza, Ashburn, Virginia.
