

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church to host Mission Fair

ASHBURN, VA - May 11 - Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church is hosting a Mission Fair on Sunday, May 20, 2007 from 9:00 am to 12:30pm, in conjunction with their "50 Days Ablaze" program. The fair will take place on the church grounds, located at 43115 Waxpool Road in Ashburn. Refreshments will be served and there will be exhibits highlighting mission opportunities. Free blood pressure screenings will also be available.

The goal of the Mission Fair is to see opportunities, both local and regional, that are available for Christian service here in our community and beyond. Confirmed participants include Victoria Neeley, Executive Director of NOVACO; Steve Heemann, Lutheran Church Extension Fund; Tiffany Sears, Haiti Mission Trip and hurricane relief Gulf Coast; Steve King, Our Savior's Way Biloxi Mission trip; Debbie Granneman, Spanish language mission from St. Johns; Andie Wessell, Thrivent Builds Loudoun County; and Lori Schneider, Director of Open Arms

Our Savior's Way, along with the Open Arms Christian Child Development Center, has served families in the Ashburn area for over 10 years. Open Arms is open to children from 6 weeks to 12 years old and offers after school care for children in kindergarten through sixth grade. They are located at the intersection of Waxpool Road and Claiborne Parkway (Exit 5 of the Greenway and 1 mile south) and are currently expanding their facility to provide room for additional community activities.
