

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Master Singers Concert to be held at Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church on December 7

ASHBURN, VA - December 1: The Master Singers will be performing a Christmas concert on Sunday, December 7, 2008 at 7:00pm at Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church in Ashburn, Virginia. Come hear one of the most challenging pieces of the 20th century for a cappella choirs—A Boy Was Born, by Benjamin Britten—which explores the birth of Christ. The second part of the concert will include music mostly by Stephen Paulus, and will feature also a guest harpist.

The cost of the concert is $15 for adults ($17 at the door) and $12 for students or seniors ($14 at the door). Tickets are available for purchase through the Master Singers web site at <http://msva.choralmusic.org> or at Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church.

The Master Singers is the premiere mixed choral ensemble in Northern Virginia - thirty musicians who are dedicated to bringing the highest quality choral music to the people of the Washington, D.C. region. Concentrating primarily in 20th- and 21st-century music, the Master Singers use their concerts to enrich, educate, and entertain their audiences.

Our Savior's Way, along with the Open Arms Christian Child Development Center, has provided a caring atmosphere for children and families in the Ashburn area for over 10 years. Open Arms is open to children from 6 weeks to 12 years old and offers preschool, full daycare, after-school programs, and summer camp. They are located at the intersection of Waxpool Road and Claiborne Parkway (1 mile south of Exit 5 of the Greenway) and have just completed expanding their facility to provide room for additional preschool, full daycare and community services.
