

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.

Not Peace, but a Sword

June 28, 2020

Our Savior's Way Lutheran Church Rev. Tyson Labuhn

Grace, mercy, and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.

In our Gospel reading for today, found in Matthew chapter 10, we find that Jesus continues to provide instruction to His disciples in their mission. They are His apostles and ambassadors of the Kingdom that He is bringing about so it might begin to take root in the hearts and minds of men and women. His Kingdom would bring about a new normal, a change, different than the world had known before. And with this change, there would most likely be conflict.

Starting in verse 34, Jesus says to them, “Do not think that I have come to bring peace to the earth. I have not come to bring peace, but a sword.” He wanted them to realize that His coming was to bring about real change. His coming is like a sword that would split even strong family bonds in two – between a son and his father or a daughter and her mother. This mission that He gave to the apostles wouldn't be easy. They would experience pressure, hardship, and opposition first-hand as they carried Jesus' mission out into the world.

Jesus even goes so far as to say, “...whoever does not take his cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Whoever finds his life will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it.” (v.38-39) And we know from history that

many of them went on to lose their lives for the sake of the Kingdom. Some report that Peter was crucified during the persecution of Nero. Andrew died on a cross at Patras. James, the younger, was thrown from a pinnacle of the Temple, then beaten to death. James, the elder son, was beheaded in Jerusalem. Philip preached as He was crucified upside-down. Simon died on a cross in Persia. And Matthew was stoned and beheaded.

Are you ready to take up your cross and follow Jesus? It seems like many, both in and outside of the church, have become used to being comfortable. Many of us live in comfortable homes located in one of the best areas in the country. During the Stay-At-Home orders associated with the pandemic, we've become comfortable sleeping in on Sundays and watching worship services at our leisure from home. We prefer to send money to missionaries instead of trying to talk to our neighbors through a mask about Jesus. Some of us may have even gotten to the point, where we'd rather be served than to serve others. We make excuses, point fingers, and judge others for their failures, rather than admitting our own, picking up our cross, and following our Lord in word and deed.

After sending out His Apostles on their first missionary journey, Jesus Himself would continue to move forward in Judea and Galilee to bring about a new normal in the lives of many. He willingly went, carrying His own cross up to Mt. Calvary, where all our sins, and the sins of the whole world, were placed on Him. He hung from the cross; He took our place. And having been forsaken by His Father in

Heaven, He died for us so that we might come to know the Good News – that in Him all our sins are forgiven in order that we might find life in Him once again.

Jesus also says in our Gospel for today, “Whoever receives you receives me, and whoever receives me receives him who sent me.” This is clearer for us today than it was when Jesus first said it to His Apostles long ago. When we repent of our sins and believe in Jesus as our Savior, we receive His grace, and we receive peace with God. It’s this peace from the Kingdom of God, as St. Paul says in Philippians 4:6, that surpasses all understanding because it guards our hearts and minds in Christ Jesus...While we live in this seemingly crazy world, we take comfort as citizens of His Kingdom. And yet, motivated by His Spirit given to us at our baptism, we share the Good News of the Kingdom of God in a new normal with others.

You know, Dr. Warren Wiersbe, a pastor, author, and theologian once said, “To deny [one’s] self does not mean [that we have] to deny things. It means to give yourself wholly to Christ...it does not mean to carry burdens or have problems...[it] means to identify with Christ in his rejection, shame, suffering and death.” In other words, to follow Jesus is to realize that you can expect the same from life that He received. Society will reject you, shame you, and there is some degree of persecution as you fail to fit in with the world. And that’s okay because according to Jesus’ own words, “The one who receives a prophet because he is a prophet, will receive a prophet’s reward, and the one who receives a righteous person because he is a righteous

person, will receive a righteous person's reward. And whoever gives one of these little ones even a cup of cold water, because he is a disciple, truly, I say to you, he will by no means lose his reward."

Our great reward is eternal life with Him. He loves you with an everlasting love, hears your prayers, and guides you along life's way even as you experience conflict in this world. You can Rejoice that He calls you into mission and to encourage others so that we can all look forward to a new normal to come when hearts and minds are forever changed, and see His Kingdom come about as has never been seen before. On that day, we will gather with those who have gone before us and worship Him.

Until that day comes, know that He has called each of us by His Word and Spirit to grow His Kingdom and be in mission. And as members of Our Savior's Way, you know our mission... which is to glorify God and make disciples for Jesus by forming relationships, experiencing Jesus together, and sharing God's love.

In Jesus' name, Amen.